Megan, Sales Coordinator

“I’m loving Smencils from smencils.com.

They’re awesomely scented pencils made from recycled newspapers. My favorites are cotton candy and grape. My kids love them too.”

Jennifer, Marketing Manager

“Fancy jewelry doesn’t have to be so unoriginal. This lolite and Sapphire Ring from Dawn Muscio (dmuscio.com) designs in Brookhaven has unique twists that make high-end jewelry funky.”

Stephanie, Editor

“I’m eager to use this line of organic frozen baby food made by two Atlanta moms (jacksharvest.com) when my son gets old enough. The heart-shaped carrots and ‘Little Lumpy’ flavors look so healthy.”
